Privacy Policy

Prophecy Networks Limited is an IT service provider that provides a range of IT services. These services include data centres, private cloud and managed services such as infrastructure support and business processing outsourced services. Prophecy Networks is fully committed to ensuring the proper, open and transparent management and use of all personal information and/or data it collects and handles complies with applicable privacy laws. This Privacy Policy applies only to external personal information and/or data provided by clients, suppliers and other external third parties that Prophecy Networks interacts with.

This Privacy Policy (Policy) sets out Prophecy Networks' policy on the management of personal information and/or data that it may receive or collect.

Personal information and personal data for the purpose of this Policy is defined as 'any sort of information or an opinion about an individual, whether true or not', and includes all personal data about an individual, or which can be used to identify an individual either directly or indirectly (collectively referred to as "Personal Information").

A sub-category of Personal Information is sensitive information and data. For the purposes of this Policy, sensitive information and data includes information of a particularly sensitive nature, such as information relating to an individual's health, racial or ethnic origins, political opinions, membership of a trade union or political association, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, sexual preferences, or criminal record.

1. What Personal Information is collected, from whom, and for what purpose?

Prophecy Networks will only collect Personal Information that is necessary for its functions and activities. We will only collect Personal Information by fair and lawful means. Prophecy Networks may collect and process Personal Information through a variety of means, including, as examples, access to Prophecy Networks site or services, employment processes, or correspondence with Prophecy Networks representatives through purchase of goods or services or in the course of online services. Prophecy Networks collects and holds different categories of information depending on the services being provided and the jurisdiction in which those services are being provided. The following types of Personal Information may be collected:

a. Information about Prophecy Networks' contractors and suppliers

Prophecy Networks collects Personal Information directly from and about our contractors and suppliers. This Personal Information includes their name and contact details which allows them to be contacted. For workplace health and safety reasons, we may also collect certain Sensitive Information from contractors with consent; for example, medical information a contractor has provided us about any injuries he or she may currently suffer from.

From third parties, we may also collect feedback and information relating to our contractors and suppliers' performance of services for Prophecy Networks. This information is collected for the purposes of monitoring our contractors and suppliers' performance of services, and to ensure that we are able to provide the highest quality Products and Services to our customers.

b. Information about job applicants

Applicants for a position at Prophecy Networks will be asked to supply details relevant to the job application such as name and contact details, information contained in CVs, and driver's licence or passport information. We may also collect Personal Information from third parties related to the applicant, such as identified referees. This information is used for the purposes of determining suitability for the vacant role.

c. Information about customers, their employees and customers

Personal Information may be collected from customers such as name and contact details, bank account, and credit card details.

All customer Personal Information collected by Prophecy Networks is used for our business functions and activities. These include:

- For billing purposes and order fulfilment
- To contact customers about our provision of services
- To maintain account details
- To provide technical support, e.g., account creation, password reset etc.
- To provide information on request about our Products and Services
- To streamline and personalise customer experience while dealing with Prophecy Networks
- To undertake customer satisfaction surveys and to tailor Prophecy Networks information, services or products in order to improve and enhance those services and products provided to our customers.

Prophecy Networks may also collect from its customers Personal Information relating to employees and customers; for example, payroll information. This Personal Information is used so that we can facilitate provision of the services our customers have requested.

Occasionally, Prophecy Networks uses aggregated Personal Information derived from use of our Products and Services to provide us with anonymous demographic and customer usage information. This information does not identify individuals. This anonymous, aggregated information is used to improve Prophecy Networks services and products.

2. Quality of Personal Information

Prophecy Networks will ensure, to the extent reasonably possible, that Personal Information collected, used or disclosed is accurate, up-to-date, complete and relevant. If Prophecy Networks becomes aware that any of the Personal Information it holds is inaccurate, it will take prompt steps to update and correct its records.

3. Data security

Prophecy Networks takes active measures to ensure the Personal Information that it holds is secure and protected from misuse, interference, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

All Prophecy Networks ICT devices, storage and channels are subject to continuous monitoring, logging analysis, and audit. Prophecy Networks may choose to contract a third party to perform these functions.

All Personal Information is stored at secure premises using good quality security protocols.

Prophecy Networks' security systems are regularly reviewed and updated to maintain the integrity of the Prophecy Networks security posture.

4. Access and correction of Personal Information

Subject to verification of identity, any Personal Information held about an individual may be accessed, updated or corrected by application to a Prophecy Networks privacy officer (for contact details, see section 9 below).

There is generally no fee for an individual to make a request or to be provided access to his or her Personal Information. However, depending on the complexity of the request, a reasonable processing fee may be charged in some cases.

Prophecy Networks will endeavour to respond to access and correction of Personal Information within 15 business days after a written request is received by a Prophecy Networks privacy officer.

5. Direct marketing

Prophecy Networks will only engage in direct marketing practices in accordance with the laws of the relevant country or jurisdiction. At any time, an individual or organisation may contact Prophecy Networks to request that they no longer wish to receive any marketing material or information from Prophecy Networks.

For email communications, Prophecy Networks also provides a simple opt-out (unsubscribe) mechanism that individuals can easily submit at any time.

If you feel at any stage, we have incorrectly used your Personal Information for direct marketing, please contact us immediately (for contact details, see section 9 below).

6. Disclosure and retention of Personal Information

As part of providing services to a customer, Prophecy Networks may disclose Personal Information to third party suppliers and contractors of services or retain and disclose Personal Information as authorised by law for example metadata.

Prophecy Networks may disclose some Personal Information to its affiliated entities in countries in which Prophecy Networks operates for the purposes of providing services to our customers, including technical support. Such disclosure is subject to the privacy laws applicable in the jurisdiction where that affiliated entity is located. A formal intragroup agreement is in place to ensure all Personal Information is properly protected at all times for transfers within the Prophecy Networks global group.

Prophecy Networks only retains Personal Information for as long as required by applicable law or as needed for our business functions and activities. If Personal Information is no longer needed, it is then destroyed or disposed of in a secure manner.
